The Greatest Orchestra.
Tho. Thomas, the king of the baton, and the greatest orchestra on earth, with the eminent pianist, Josephy, in the party, gave a superb musical treat at the Grand last night before a large audience—a gathering which was representative of the culture and music-loving people of this and neighboring cities. The balcony was filled, all but two of the boxes were taken, hundreds were in the gallery, and the lower floor was fairly well occupied; the total receipts aggregating nearly $600. Program No. 2 was given entire, with no encore selections, although several numbers were enthusiastically received. The attempt to induce Josephy to respond failed. The Beethoven and Schumann music was received as the most highly appreciated. Thomas has 36 pieces with him, and every musical is an artist. The visit of such a noted organization is a great compliment to Decatur, but the date was only secured through the personal efforts of Manager Haines, who spent much time and money in securing the attraction as one of the big features of the season. No other city in Illinois, except Chicago, has or will hear the orchestra this season. The musicians appear at Louisville, Ky., to-night.

Mrs. Kinsman's Card Party.
A progressive encamp party was given last evening by Mrs. G. C. Kinsman at her home, 611 Prairie Avenue, in honor of her guest, Mrs. W. D. McIntire, of Philadelphia. For being the most progressive lady player Mrs. J. G. Stauffer received a handsome glass jewel case. Mrs. E. B. Alexander received the second prize, a beautiful Bohemian glass golden-red holder. Mr. G. D. Thomas, the most adept gentleman player, earned the first prize, a well-filled cut-glass cologne bottle. Frank Rosch won the hand-painted shaving paper holder, the second prize. Refreshments were served during the evening. Among those present were O. E. Curtis, G. F. Stumbaum, G. M. Hinch, Fred Booth, G. D. Thomas and their wives, Misses Mollie Barnes, Harriet Howell, Frances Grimes and Alice Roberts. Mrs. J. G. Stauffer, Mrs. E. B. Alexander, Mrs. I. M. Nelson, Mrs. E. B. Johnson, Dr. Everett Brown, Frederick A. Brown, Albert Barnes, Sherry Johns, W. O. Johns, James Coop and John Clugton.

NO!

NOT DEALERS IN FLOUR.

We deny it because one cannot be a dealer who parts with the merchandise without any valuable consideration. Why do Ferriss & Lapham give barrels and barrels, and sacks and sacks of Flour away to people who trade with them? It is because it is good to have, it is bone and muscle, and brains; otherwise they would give salt or salt, or something else cheaper than Pillsbury's best -and a barrel at a time, and sack after sack of Bellabarger's and Hattie's very best flour.

Buy shoes of FERRISS & LAPLHAM and get 10 per cent more than elsewhere for the same price, and you find that you stand an equal show with all the rest of the world in having the best flour in the world, costing you a cent in the world.

AT THE BAR OF JUSTICE.

Opening of the Faunce Murder Trial—Selecting a Jury.

Witnesses for the People—The Prisoner's Appearance—The Crime.

Judge Hughes arrived from Mattoon yesterday afternoon, and after disposing of a few motions, turned to the People's docket, and the noted murder case of the People vs. Ephraim Faunce was called up for trial. State's Attorney Mills stated that the People were ready, but the attorneys for the defense asked for delay until this morning, as it was represented that two important witnesses who had been summoned were not present.
They are Ed. Morton, alias Lytton, and Fannie O'Gorman, professional people, who were known to be at Grayville, Edwards County, Ill. The request for delay was granted, and court ordered attachments issued for Ed. and Fannie. Constable Midkiff left for Grayville to-day to arrest the parties. Besides the attachments, Midkiff had a state warrant for Morton, who is charged with jumping a board bill.

The time for the funeral has not been fixed.

Funeral of Henry C. Blain.

This forenoon at 10 o'clock the funeral of the late Henry C. Blain took place from the family residence, 1266 North Water street, and was very largely attended by veterans—soldiers, employees of Haworth & Sons' factory, neighbors and friends, who, by their presence and kindly offices, gave evidence of the sympathy they felt for the widow in her great sorrow, and the high esteem in which the deceased was held. The floral offerings included a massive design, "Gate of Ajur," from the Haworth & Sons' employees; a harp from the neighbors; a beautiful bouquet of the words, "My Husband" in immortalized in other offerings. Rev.
Charles Manchester, of the Church of God, conducted the sad services, taking the text of the consoling words, "And I heard a voice saying, 'Weep not for the dead, for they are blessed are they that die in the Lord.'" Prayer was offered by Rev. T. W. Pinkerton, of the Christian church, who also read a biographical sketch of the deceased. The musical selections were "Asleep in Jesus" and "God's Ways are the Best," given by the State's, Mr. K. Harwood, Miss Jessie Mason, F. M. Lutz and Howard Diller.
Messrs. F. M. Cox, Theodore Coleman, Harvey Mahan and George S. Durfee, Wm. Dunigan and Wm. Webb served as pallbearers. In the long funeral cortage the members of the Mason County Veterans Association and the employees of Haworth & Sons marched in a body, serving as escort. The interment took place in Greenwood cemetery.

King, pastor of the United Brethren church, was appointed to preach the sermon. It was decided to hold another meeting of the Association in two weeks.

Think of It!

Yes, just think how dingy the old excuse of an Union depot will look, when the Citizens company put those elegantly decorated electric cars on the track, and have them at the trains to bring the people into the city. The contrast will be positively striking. What encouragement is there for Decatur to put on style and keep step with the progress of the age, with such a barn-like depot at the principal gate of the city, for the stranger and the tourist to gaze upon? No wonder the citizens of Decatur are so anxious to have a new depot.

England

THE HUNTINGTON HAYFIELD Nuptials

LONDON, Oct. 29.—As a social event exciting interest among the ultra-fashions and tried people of London, the marriage of Miss Charlotte Huntington to Prince Hayfield yesterday, fell a trifle outside of the mark as if it had taken place in the antipodes, but is an event calculated to displease the American girl in the opinion of English noblemen and gentlemen it struck the center of the target. Although the ceremony was conducted with a show of privacy, there was a sufficient display of ostentation throughout the affair to throw over it a tawdry glamour, pleasing to the lovers of display. About one hundred prominent persons were present in the gorgeously decorated rooms at Brompton to witness the marriage, and not a few took occasion to remark upon the commercial aspect of the alliance. The attendance was limited to last man and a half-smile, respectively—Count Heron Huntington and Miss Sherrill of Washington. A nuptial mass followed the ceremony. Among the rare and costly presents were a magnificent Bible and a unique rosary from the Pope.

THE AMERICAN MUDHORN

The English newspapers are singularly deficient in enthusiasm over Sunday's marriage of Princess Sophie of Prussia to the Duke of Sparta of Athens, and in view of the fact that the alliance has passed the counterpane, but the speculations of the Queen, the Prince and Princess of Wales, and the Empress of Brazil, the parity of compliment addressed to the affair is the more to be wondered at. None of them however goes to the length of criticizing it, and the public must perform belief that it is a matter in which England has no interest.

THE BRUTON DUNGAN SCANDAL

The long delayed and much talked of action for breach of promise brought by the well known actress Phillips Brugh against Lord Dunbar has been settled out of court. By the terms of the settlement Miss Broughton recovers $4,000 in cash, besides the wide diversion which the matter has given to the literary side of which it would be difficult to compute, and his £1,000,000 plus £100,000 from farmland account of the love affair in question.

Germany

THE NORTH GERMAN POLITIC

BERLIN, Oct. 29.—The North German Gazette sent a telegram from Athens to Emperor William to Prince Emanuele which reads as follows:

"I have only in glorious old Athens the pleasure of intoxicating beauty."

After a signal reception from the Crown Prince and the people your telegram may just greet from home heartily thanks for it. My best words I dedicate to the health and happiness of the Pan American tourists who are to arrive next Wednesday morning.

A meeting was held at the Commercial Club yesterday afternoon to perfect arrangements for the entertainment of the distinguished visitors. The mayor had vetoed an ordinance passed by the City Council appropriating $1,000 to be expended for entertaining the guests. The council overrode the veto but the mayor forbade any money being used for the purpose. Tarsney commented disagreeably on this action whereupon the mayor struck him in the face. Mr. Tarsney reached into his hip pocket to draw his revolver, but his friends prevented him from using the weapon.

The Pilkington Flax Mills sold to a Syndicate.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 29.—An evening paper publishes a report that the Pilkington flax mills have finally been sold to an English syndicate for the sum of $5,000,000 and that the deal was completed Saturday to go into effect November 1.

Mr. C. A. Pillsbury was seen to night and denied that the mills were sold.

Should they be sold the present owners would continue to hold a large interest and manage the property.
